THE POLITICAL BATTLE.

WHAT THE TWO PARTIES ARE DOING. NEWS AT REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS-DEMOCRATS WHO WILL NOT SUPPORT HANCOCK-DEMO-CRATIC METHODS OF ARGUMENT—THE STRUGGLE OF THE FACTIONS FOR CITY OFFICES.

The reports received yesterday at the political centres in this city showed that prominent Democrats in this State are announcing their intention to support Garfield and Arthur. Great preparations are making for the coming parade. At a Republican meeting in Abingdon-Square last night Democrats stoned the speakers. Tammany and Irving Halls have not yet agreed about the division of city offices. Circulars of a significant character are being sent out by the Democrats in Alabama,

WORK OF THE COMMITTEES.

DEMOCRATS SUPPORTING GARFIELD AND ARTHUR-PROSPECTS IN NEW-YORK AND NEW-JERSEY-THE COMING PARADE.

The Republican National Headquarters were filled with visitors last night. Among those present were ex-Secretary Robeson, of New-Jersey, who said that the canvass in that State looked remarkably well. While New-Jersey is in the list of doubtful States, Mr. Robeson-thought it could be fairly counted as Republican now.

At the rooms of the State Committee news was received of a number of men who have heretofore been prominent in the ranks of the Democracy of this State who have now come out for Garfield and Arthur. Among these was S. S. Johnson, manager of the Garner estate and Dutchess County Print Works at Wappinger's Falls, who has been a lifelong Democrat. Mr. Johnson is only one of many prominent manufacturers in this State who have prominent manufacturers in this State who have declared within a few days that they are opposed to any change which will endanger their business, as would the success of the Democracy. Mr. Tetls, of Syracuse, a former member of the Democrate State Committee, has also come out for Garfield.

Attorney-General Ward, who was at the committee rooms, said that he never knew Republicans so carnest in the canvass as he finds them in this State.

He believes the State is certain for Garfield and Arthur.

The preparations for the great parade on the occasion of General Grant's visit to this city on October 11 were being pushed forward yesterday. Major-General Henry E. Davies, jr., has been assigned by General Carr to the command of the First Division of the Boys in Blue. General Aspirwall, chief matshal, has assigned positions in the parade for campaign organizations in the rear of the Boys in Blue. Visiting organizations from many surrounding cities will probably take part in the parade. A delegation of 1,000 Boys in Blue will come from Albary.

The next Republican meetic of the Cooper Institute series will be held next Wednesday night, when Edwards Fierrepont will speak.

ABUSE AS A DEMOCRATIC ARGUMENT. HOW EX-ALDERMAN TUOMEY ARGUED WITH A FRIEND WHO DID NOT WANT A CHANGE.

The manner in which some Democrats purpose to induce their friends to vote for Hancock was practically illustrated Thursday morning by Michael Tuomey, one of the leaders of Tammany Hall in the | members as associates. XXth Assembly District. Mr. Tuomey claims the honor of having started the Hancock "boom." is said to be a constant visitor at Governor's Island and to enjoy the friendship of the Democratic candidate. Several years ago his party honored him with the position of Alderman, but he has never sucreeded in rising to any greater distinction in the publie service. He was nominated for Coroner two years ago, but was defeated. Since then he has been active in building up the party, and is now considered one of the leading Tammany statesmen in his dis-

Among the friends he made in his checkered political career was Maurice V. Freund, a real estate agent at No. 760 Third-ave. Mr. Freund has always been a Democrat, and during the last five or six years has taken an active interest in platics. He was a member of the Tammany Hall Govern Committee three or four years ago, but now he is not connected with any political organization. When Mr. Tuomey ran for Coroner two years Freund showed his zeal terest in the election by contributing a check made payable to Mr. Tuomey's order. He has never held any political office, and claims that he never ought political preferment or asked favors. Therefore he is not what is called a "sorehead." But like a great many other Democrats, Mr.

Freund is opposed to a "change." In discussing politics with his friends in social and business life, he has expressed himself in favor of continuing the Republican party in power. He told his friends that for some years the real estate business was at a low sbb, but that in the last year business had picked up wonderfully. He declared that now he was making money, whereas in other years he had met with much financial embarrassment. In looking around he found a corresponding prosperity in every other branch of trade,

"Seeing these things," said Mr. Freund yesterday,
"I could not consistently vote to put a party out of power that had done so much to bring prosperity to the country. So I made up my mind to vote for Garfield, although I did not purpose to relinquish my claims to the name of a Democrat, because I had intended to vote the Democratic county ticket. I looked at the question from a purely business point of view." politics with his friends in social and business life,

Mr. Tuomey in his tours through the district heard

Mr. Tuomey in his tours brough the district heard off the change of sind that had come over Mr. Freund. Tuomey is a large, heavily-built and muscular man, whereas Mr. Freund is small and slender. Abount 10 a. m. one day recently Mr. Tuomey visited Mr. Freund's office, where several customers, among whom was a woman, were congregated. Then the following conversation occurred;
Mr. Tuomey—"I'd like to see you a few minutes, Econal. I understand that you are going to you I understand that you are going to vote

Mr. Freund-" Yes, I'm going to vote for him, but I intend to vote the Democratic county ticket."
Mr. Tuomey (augrily)—"Oh, we don't want any such D mocrats as you."
Mr. Freund—"Oh, there is no use of getting so ex-

Mr. Freund interrupted the ex-Alderman's speech

Mr. Freind interrupted the ex-Alberman's speech at this point, because his customers and others who were passing by gathered around and looked on with amazement. The recollection of money that he had given Tuoney to aid in his election came to Mr. Freund's mind, so he remarked:

"Oh. I guess I have done you as many favors as you ever granted me."

At this answer Mr. Tuomey became uncontrollable with rage. Drawing himself up in a belligerent attainde he ejaculated:

"You're a har, ——— you. You lie."

"You're a har, ——— you. You lie."

A mutual friend then stepped up to the excited statesman and said: "Oh, well, Freund may you for Hancock yet." Having exhausted his vocabulary. Thomey wasked away.

Mr. Freund was very much disturbed through the rest of the day. "If that is the kind of leaders the Democratic party encourages," said he yesterday, "I think I will join the kepublican ranks the flist opportunity I get. I am not so certain now that I will vote the whole Democratic county tieket."

THE BROKERS' REPUBLICAN CLUB.

The Campaign Club formed recently by Republican members of the Stock Exchange has issued a circular, inviting those who have not yet had an opportunity to enroll themselves, to join the assonation. There were added vesterday to the membership over seventy-five names; one subscriber, who is not an active member of the Board, came down town simply to add his name and offer his gift. Each member is allowed to add $5 to the funds of the club, and some appear eager to give much more than that; the officers have refused larger contributions. S. W. Boocock yesterday off red to furnish, at his own expense, a banner for the use of the club, and at a meeting in the afternoon of the executive committee this offer was accepted. Among the new members yesterday were . J. 1. Atterbury, of Van Emburgh & Atterbury; D. B. Hatch and Charles B. Foote, of Hatch & Foote; M. T. Carey, George C. Clark and Louis C. Clark, of

STONING REPUBLICAN SPEAKERS. ATTACKING A REPUBLICAN MEETING IN ABINGDON SQUARE-DEMOCRATS ATTEMPT TO BREAK UP

THE GATHERING. A large mass meeting was held last evening in Abingdon Square, under the auspices of the Lincoln Union of the Ninth Ward. A fine new transparency was displayed on the south side of the Square, and there was a creditable parade of the Boys in Blue, comprising the IXth District battalion, the Jacobus battery, the IXth District First Voters, the Vth District Lincoln Union battery, and the McCook battery. There were about 3,000 persons in the Square, which was illuminated by lanterns and an electric light. The speakers were R. Burgess, of Verginia, Major W. Bullard, General Anson G. McCook ,and Colonel J. W. Jones, of Brooklyn. The peeches were candid and unpartisan appeals to the intelligence of the audience, which listened with good attention, especially to the discussion of the issues of the tariff and finance. Allusions to the Republican candidates called forth ringing cheers.

and all the speakers were hearthly applanded. and all the speakers were nearrily applicated.

The IXth District Hancock and English Club has rooms in Hudson-st, on the west side of the Square, and there was a large number of Democrats havering on the outskirts of the Republican audience. These frequently tried to interrupt the speakers by importanent questions and yelling. While General McCook was speaking several missiles were thrown at the necessary on the platform. Andrew J. Campton. at the persons on the platform. Andrew J. Campbell, President of the Lincoln Union, was struck, and another man had his hat smashed by a stone. A reporter of The Triburs was struck on the head with a piece of brick as he stood on the piatform. No arrests were made.

NOT A HARMONIOUS DEMOCRACY.

MEETINGS OF IRVING AND TAMMANY HALLS. The Irving Hall and Tammany Hall Conference Committees, to agree upon nominations for city offices, were in session at the Westminster Hotel yesterday for three hours without reaching any conclusion, so far as could be ascertained. The Irving Hall Executive Committee remained in session the night before until after midnight, engaged in a bitter wrangle. At one time the excitement ran so high that some of the members were standing on chairs with their

On one side was nearly half of the Irving Hall Executive Committee which numbers 200, led by John Fox, Charles W. Brooke, T. Shea and James Oliver, while the opposing side was led by Hubert O. Thompson, Maurice J. Power and Hugh H. Moore. The Fox side accused the others of selling out the Irving Hall party to John Kelly in order to get offices for themselves. Mr. Shea made a bitter speech in which he said he would no selected negro voters, to secure (30 majority desired, and that the may order a proper attended to the cubes will use their influence to cause all persons employing Democratic labor to aid them to be present and vote. Use all lawful means to watch and keep to their promise those negroes who have arread not to vote. But, above all things, be careful in this to avoid intimilation. . . It is desirable that our attention be concentrated upon selected negro voters, to secure (30 majority desired, and that the others be let alone.) longer be led by the nose by that "-- -- Irish Turk," referring to John Kelly. The Thompson-Power interest replied to the effect that the others wanted to get con trol so as to make bargains for themselves. All this was over the simple proposition to appoint a sub-committee of the Conference Committee, which was itself a orb-committee, and the proposition was finally carried. This was a signal defeat for Mr. Fox, who got appointed on this sub-committee with seven anti-Fox sub-committees retired to an inner room in a remote part of the house and locked and belied the doors, and pinced a guard on the outside to see that no reporters neard of the bargains or interfered with the harmony. After being locked in for two hours, they came out and reported to the hundreds of anxious ones on the outside that tage then, but without reaching any conclusion had adjourned until Tuesday next. It leaked out, however, that both sides wanted the Mayor, Mr. Kelly gave as a reason why he should be allowed to name the man that he could elect him, and Mr. Power combatted these arguments.

When these sixteen men agree upon the persons to rule the city for the next two years the end will be nearly as far off as new. On the part of Tanamany Hali that will end it, as Mr. Keily will make his own bargains and ratify them. But the Irving Hall sub-committee will have to obtain the approval of the Conference Committee; the latter body will report to the Executive Committee, and the Executive Committee. will report to the General Committee; and by that time probably the numerous ones that have been left out of the "deal" will form a new "hail" and set up in business for themselves.

TRYING TO DEFEAT REGISTRATION.

A petition signed by a number of citizens Town of West Chester was recently presented to the Suterk as required by the law passed by the last Legislature. The Town Clerk, according to the act, should in form the inspectors of election of each district and fur nish a copy of the act to each inspector. The necessary number of the copies of the act is to be furnished to the Town Clerk by the County Clerk. The Town Clerk having failed to receive copies of the act ofter making the proper application, went to White Plains making the proper application, which to whole Prains and made a personal application to the County Clerk. In the absence of the County Clerk his deputy, who was applied to, asked by what authority the Town Clerk asked for copies of the act. The Town Clerk displayed the petition which had been sent to him by citizens of West Chester. Subsequently Mr. Rowet, the County Clerk, was seen. He said that he did not have any copies of the act. This action of the County Clerk is considered an attempt on his part to defeat the operation of the Registration act.

MR. LUM'S GREAT DISCOVERY.

At the rooms of the Democratic National Committee last night a letter was furnished for publication from Dyer D. Lem. as Assistant Secretary of the National Committee of the Greenback Labor Party, charging General Weaver with working in the interests of the Republicans. Mr. Lun professes to have discovered that money has been fur processes to have discovered that money has been furnished to the Greenback party, by the Republican National Committee, and as the Greenback party is working with the Democrats he thinks this is all wrong. Considering these things, Mr.
Lum resums, and writes a long letter for publication, which has been printed in circular form by Mr.
Barnum, and is now being sent in large numbers to Indiana. Mr. Lum, it is said, is to be rewarded by Mr.
Barnum with the appointment to an assistant secretaryship in the Democratic National Committee, with an increase of salary.

HUDSON COUNTY CANDIDATES.

Both parties in Hudson County, N. J., have completed their nominations. The Republicans have Democrats have named A. A. Hardenberg. For State Senator the Republicans have placed in the field Gilbert Collins, who is considered a very strong candidate. B. W. Throckmorton is the Republican candidate for Surrogate. He is as well known in New-York as in New-Jersey as a successful lawyer and speaker. For sixteen years he has lacored hard, on and off the stump, for Republican success. His nomination has been received with enthusiasm by Hudson County Republicans, and the party is heartily unanimous in his support. The Republican ticket is considered by all to be a very strong one, and if the work the Berubheaus are now doing be kept up until election day the prospects of success are good.

PARADE IN NEWARK.

A general parade of all the Republican Campaign Clubs of Newark took place last evening, over 4,000 uniformed men being in line, with several bands of music. The procession marched through parts of the city seldom visited by pageants of the kind, and was received with the greatest enthusiasm by large throngs of people assembled on the streets to witness the parade. At various points fireworks were set off. The Frelinghuyen Engineer Corps, which was attacked by Jemeoratic railinas in East Newark a few weeks ago, had the right of the line. Several colored clubs were also in the parade. The houses of many citizens on the line of march were utilizantly illuminated.

The Times in a leading article this morning says:

The aspect of effairs in the East gives reasonable ground to hope that the pacific execution of the Treaty of Berlin will be found in the united action of the Powers. The pressure unon Turkey will now cease to be merely local, but it will be the object of the united Cabinets through their representatives at Constantinople to extort from the Porte the concessions grained by the Freuty of Berlin. Meanwhile it is a matter of significance that the present alliance of the Powers, so far rom losing strength through the interposition of obstacles imperfectly forseen, has probably acquired new force from trial.

It is semi-officially declared at Paris that the French lovernment, while adhering to its present reserved attack with reference to the action of the Powers in the last, is perfectly resolved not to separate from the laropean concert.

THE ACTUAL SITUATION.

The Daily News, in its leading editorial, says:

The Cabinet Council yesterday had before it a request of the Porte that no further action be taken by the Powers before Sunday. This interval of grace will probably be granied. There is not the slightest beterion on the part of the British Government to swerve from their declared policy, but the other Powers must be consulted recarding the course to be taken if the Porte's decision on Sunday shall prove to be unsatisfactory. Much depends or the attitude of Austria, when will central that of Germany. Should they go with the other Powers Italy would probably cooperate. France would at least not namper their action, and Russia would be unable to develop any adverse policy of her own. But even if the great Powers do not agree, we do not believe the British Government would hold themselves relieved from the necessity for further action. "The germ of specialism," he said, "may be found as far back in the past as the time when Alexaudria was a flourishing city. There is an army of specialists in the world now. It has become the fashion to sneer at them; but I hold Specialism is justifiable and useful. It has grown to its present position in response to the demands of the are.
